

When the opportunity entrusted to broadcast stations is abridged by knowingly presenting propaganda, our government must be compelled to act. We share so many characteristics of early Nazi Germany within the United States today that the very values upon which our nation was founded are being placed at risk by a small group of sly, cunning and deceitful individuals. We cannot let this happen, and our laws are currently structured to prevent/eliminate this problem. The FCC has no alternative but to act immediately if it is not part of this evolving 'conspiracy'.

Sinclair Broadcasting's decision to force their stations to air an anti-Kerry documentary days before the election is a clear example of the dangers of media consolidation.

Large companies controlling the airwaves what's good for a select set of overlords, lessening what we need from our democracy.

Sinclair's actions show why we need to strengthen media ownership rules, not weaken them. They show why the license renewal process needs to involve more than a returned postcard. Thank you.
